

Withdrawal, Return of Funds, and Refund Policy

Determination of Official Date of Withdrawal:

Withdrawal of funds from a student's account will occur on the official date of withdrawal. The official date of withdrawal is the date that the student is officially notified of their withdrawal status. This date is determined by the Registrar's Office and is typically the date of the student's last class session. Withdrawal of funds will occur on the date that the student is officially notified of their withdrawal status, regardless of whether the student has received their final grade or not.

Return of Federal Title IV Funds:

Federal Title IV funds are returned to the federal government based on the student's withdrawal status. If a student withdraws from all classes, the federal government will return the Title IV funds to the student's account. If a student withdraws from some classes, the federal government will return the Title IV funds to the student's account based on the percentage of classes completed.
